

BALL TRADITION

The stadium project will include preservation of the existing structure and enhancements that will improve the game-day experience for all Michigan fans. Planning has been underway for more than three years. Construction is underway and is expected to be completed by August 2010. The project will be phased so that Michigan Stadium is available for games and commencement ceremonies during construction. Improvements include:

- Wider seats and aisles with handrails to make it easier for fans to move in the aisles
- New elevated concourses with additional restrooms and concessions along both sidelines.
- More seating for individuals with mobility problems along the sidelines.
- Two new buildings on the north end of the stadium that will house additional restrooms, concessions and public safety services.
- A new building on the south end of the stadium that will offer additional concessions and restrooms.
- A new press box.
- Refurbished restroom facilities.
- 650+ new chair back seats on the west side.
- 47 suites in the west side structure (36 suites located on the first level and 11 suites on the second level).
- 1,900+ outdoor club seats and a stadium lounge on the first level of the east side structure.
- 250+ indoor club seats and 850+ covered outdoor club seats and a stadium lounge on the second level of the east side structure.
- 36 suites on the third level of the east side structure.
- Four towers, at the end of each sideline structure, will feature elevators and wide stairways to the new concourses and premium seating areas with entrances.

U-M enters the 2008 season with 208 consecutive games with at least 100,000 or more fans.

- Michigan Stadium is in its 82nd season of gridiron action in 2008.
- Michigan has won 31 of its last 37 games at Michigan Stadium entering 2008.
- The Wolverines have led the nation in average attendance 33 of the last 34 seasons.
- "The Big House" — The University of Michigan was the first school to have a line of apparel named after its stadium's nickname.
- 41,303,003 fans have watched the Wolverines over the years at Michigan Stadium.
- Michigan has compiled a 373-109-15 record at Michigan Stadium.
- The Wolverines have had 71 winning seasons in 81 years at Michigan Stadium.
- Legendary ABC College Football play-by-play announcer Keith Jackson is credited with coining "The Big House" used in reference to Michigan Stadium.
- The second largest college football stadium in the country, it was completed in 1927 at a cost of $950,000, initially seating 72,000 fans. Michigan won the first game played at Michigan Stadium, defeating Ohio Wesleyan, 33-0, on Oct. 1, 1927. The stadium was officially dedicated on Oct. 22, 1927, with a 21-0 shutout over Ohio State.
- On football Saturdays in Ann Arbor, Michigan Stadium ranks as the fourth-largest "city" in the state of Michigan, surpassing the population of Ann Arbor itself.
- Michigan Stadium was the first college-owned football facility with a video scoreboard above both end zones. It was also the first stadium to use electronic scoreboards for official time when, in 1930, two were installed.

BALL TRADITION

"There is no doubt this is my favorite place, to see four generations rise up and appreciate it, for the pageantry, the ambience. Michigan has such grandiosity. It has all those All-Americans. You can't go anywhere without finding a Michigan graduate."

Keith Jackson about Michigan and Michigan Stadium

Michigan Stadium — 1927-2007 (81 Years) Won 373, Lost 109, Tied 15

CAPACITY: 106,201 — the second largest college-owned structures of its kind designed solely for football — closer to the playing field with no running track—no posts or other obstructions.

COMPLETION: 1927 — at a cost in excess of $950,000 to seat 72,000 spectators. Capacity increased to 84,401 by addition of temporary wooden bleachers until 1949 when permanent steel stands replaced the wooden bleachers, increasing the capacity to 97,239. Seating capacity then increased to 101,001 in 1956, 101,701 in 1973, 102,501 in 1992 and 107,501 in 1998.

FIRST GAME: October 1, 1927 — Michigan led by Captain Bennie Oosterbaan, defeated Ohio Wesleyan, 33-0. LaVerne (Kip) Taylor, Michigan end, scored first in the stadium on a 28-yard pass from halfback Louis Gilbert.

DEDICATION GAME: October 22, 1927 — Michigan defeated Ohio State, 21-0.

ATTENDANCE: Since 1927 — 41,303,003 fans have watched the Wolverines play 497 games (an average of 83,105). Stadium attendance record of 106,982 set Nov. 22, 1997 against Ohio State. Since expansion of the "Big House" in 1998, the single-game attendance record is 112,118 set against Ohio State on Nov. 22, 2003. NCAA season record of 745,139 set in 1997.

U-M enters 2008 season with 208 consecutive crowds over 100,000.

FIELD: 360 x 160 feet — Installed FieldTurf in 2003, returning Michigan to an artificial surface for the first time since the 1990 season.

Installed Prescription Athletic Turf in 1991, giving Michigan its first natural grass field since 1968. Field was also lowered 3-1/2 feet allowing better sightlines for those seated in the lower rows.

"The Team, The Team, The Team" has been the memorable battle cry of the Wolverines for decades. This "team first" concept is what has allowed Michigan to build upon its distinguished winning tradition year after year.

Beginning its 129th year of gridiron action, the University of Michigan football program is the most decorated in college history:

- Michigan's winged helmet is the most recognizable symbol in college football.
- The Wolverines rank first in all-time Division I-A victories (869) and all-time winning percentage (.745).
- Michigan is the most televised college football program in NCAA history with 382 appearances.
- U-M boasts 157 straight televised games heading into the 2008 season.
- The Wolverines' 42 Big Ten Conference titles are the most of college football program in any conference.
- U-M is fifth all-time with 11 national titles, including three back-to-back title seasons.
- The Wolverines have been ranked in the final Associated Press top 25 poll 22 of the last 23 years and have been listed in the final rankings 37 of the last 40 years.
- Michigan has had 270 players named All-Big Ten Conference first team a total of 388 times since 1902, the most of any conference school.
- U-M lists fourth all-time in NCAA history with 76 consensus All-American selections. The Wolverines have had 124 players earn All-America first team honors during their careers.
- Michigan heads into the 2008 season with a streak of 208 consecutive games at Michigan Stadium with 100,000 or more fans.

- Three Michigan players -- Tom Harmon, Desmond Howard, Charles Woodson -- have won the prestigious Heisman Memorial Trophy, while the Wolverines have had 23 others place among the top 10 in the voting.
- The Wolverines' streak of 33 straight bowl games is the longest streak in NCAA history.
- U-M has led the nation in average attendance 33 of the last 34 seasons.
- The Wolverines have placed 286 former players onto NFL rosters, including 45 players last year.
- U-M lists fifth all-time with 43 first round NFL draft picks, including No. 1 picks Tom Harmon and Jake Long.

Michigan was one of three college football programs featured on a Wheaties box in 2006.

MICHIGAN WOLVERINES TRADITION is ...

- ... the winningest overall athletic program in Big Ten Conference history.
- ... maize and blue, the most recognized colors in college history.
- ... the winged helmet that adorns every Michigan football player.
- ... the most recognizable fight song in college football "Hail to the Victors."
- ... players entering the field prior to kickoff.
- ... the 'Block M' adorning the east side of Michigan Stadium bleachers.

SPECIAL COMMEMORATIVE ISSUE

M I C H I G A N F O O T

Tom Harmon, 1940, sixth winner of the Heisman trophy, claimed college football's top award after finishing second the previous year.

Desmond Howard, 1991, won the Heisman by the second largest margin in the trophy's history; his 640 first place votes (85 percent) were the most ever for a Heisman winner.

Charles Woodson, 1997, was the first primarily defensive player to win the Heisman Trophy.

Three Michigan players — Tom Harmon, Desmond Howard, Charles Woodson — have won the prestigious Heisman Memorial Trophy.

- The Wolverines have had 23 others place among the top 10 in the voting.
- U-M players have placed in the top 11 in the Heisman voting in 25 of the 70 years the trophy has been presented.
- Anthony Carter placed among the top 10 three times during his career, including a fourth-place finish as a senior during the 1982 season.
- Tom Harmon, Ron Kramer and Rick Leach finished in the top 10 twice during their careers.
- Harmon was second in the 1939 balloting and took home the award in 1940.
- Three U-M players have finished in the top 10 since 2003 (Chris Perry, Braylon Edwards and Mike Hart).
- Bob Chappuis was the runner-up for the Heisman in 1947.
- Rob Lytle (1976), Rick Leach (1978) and Jim Harbaugh (1986) placed third in the voting while Bob Timberlake (1964), Anthony Carter (1982) and Chris Perry (2003) have placed fourth in balloting.
